

Another new motion picture house opens its doors in Saskatoon tonight Towne Cinema Centre, on 20th Street, will begin operation of a 270-seat facility as a twin on the west side of its current theatre The ticket-selling outlet will remain in the same location and will service both theatres Chuck Barris feeds his ego by writing, directing and starring in The Gong Show Movie, a bonanza of bizarre novelty acts, all in pursuit of Barris with hopes of getting on the TV show. The content is semi-factual, outrageous and takes advantage of a restricted adult rating. Jaye P. Morgan, Rip Taylor and Tony Randall are among the cast members. Towne Cinema Red The Hollywood Knights is an irreverent comedy about a group of young men who are going to make Halloween, 1965, a memorable one even though their hang-out is being destroyed. Some call it a cross between National Lampoon's Animal House and American Graffiti. It's madness in Beverly Hills, with the cast loaded with new faces. Towne Cinema Blue, the new facility
