A WORD FROM THE PRODUCERS

Welcome to our annual concert, entitled Unforgettable. We have decided to ring the changes this year and make a welcome departure from the world of musical theatre by devoting this evening's entertainment to the great melodies and songs of the 30s, 40s and 50s – delivered to you through jazz and swing style. To enhance this theme we are delighted to have engaged the glorious dulcet tones of Edith Budge – Edinburgh's First Lady of Jazz. We are certain that you will recognise most of the musical items in this evening's programme so sit back, relax and enjoy the songs and melodies that Frank Sinatra, Nat King Cole, Ella Fitzgerald, Peggy Lee, Doris Day and Glenn Miller (to name but a few) have all made famous.

Edith Budge has performed in several jazz festivals around the country, at the Caveau de la Huchette in Paris, London's Dolphin Square and just recently completed a three and a half years residency at the Balmoral Hotel in Edinburgh. In February of this year, on a visit to New York, Edith was invited to sing with a crowd of world class musicians, including; singer Carol Sudhalter, Joe Tranchina (Piano) Leonard Gaskin (Bass) and Jimmy Butts (Drums). The session was an outstanding success and prompted Carol Sudhalter to extend an invitation to Edith to join her on tour later in the year. Edith has also been asked to work in New York but has yet to make a decision.

In May of 2004, the Edith Budge Trio performed, before a select audience, a concert of gospel and jazz at the Palace of Holyrood. She is currently recording a CD, due to be released in the summer of 2004, of songs to celebrate the centenary year of the great Count Basie.

They are aiming to raise a minimum of £7,500 for these charities, so please give what you can to help these two worthwhile causes.
