Christine Dearden.

Christine Dearden is a 44 year-old mother, housewife, and grannie, living in Lancashire. She has been involved with stage work and drama for around 25 years, but only in the last 5 years has she branched out into the writing of plays.

As a member of her local drama group, The Greenfield Methodist Players, she has written several plays, and staged shows like "Crystal & the Golden Heart" before submitting them for publication to the New Playwrights Network. One of her published plays won the Oldham Group Drama Festival in 1990.

In her spare time, Christine runs Dancing Classes and a Drama Group, as well as being a Sunday School Teacher. These, as well as having the job of being a Home Care assistant allow her to spend as much time as possible with people, young and old.
