The play directed by Ian Dewar

Ingenious, lively and full of surprises, this play takes an irreverent look at the way writers go about their creation. Jeffrey and Belinda are just about to type the last word of their new play when.....

The action takes place at a shortened version of Elsinore Castle

We take the best loved lines of Shakespeare's play and condense them into a hilarious version lasting approximately 15 minutes. This miraculous feat is followed by an encore which consists of a two minute version of the same play.

WORKSHOPS — OUTINGS — SOCIAL EVENTS

E.Y.T.C. was founded in April 1989 and presented its first production on the Edinburgh International Festival Fringe in August. They chose 'Our Day Out' by Willy Russell, a musical play which gave the members of the company plenty of scope to demonstrate their acting talents and played to good houses.

The programme of activities since then has concentrated on building up the company through drama workshops and this performance at the S.N.A.Y.T. Festival is their first performance of the new season. Future plans include participation in Edinburgh's SPRING FLING Festival in June and the presentation of a new musical on the Fringe in August.
