ONCE UPON A CASTLE

David, Louise and Andrew find themselves on "The Witches Midnight Tour" of the castle dungeons. Jamie, their guide, is horrified when they accidentally disturb Martha, an evil witch, who curses them back to 1341.

There, Sir William Douglas and his men have hatched an ambitious plan to retake the castle and rescue his beloved daughter, Maggie.

Our time travellers soon discover they have arrived in a very dangerous place indeed. Jamie's knowledge of the castle can help Sir William, and together they pit their wits against the arrogant and greedy castle governor, Sir Thomas de Rokeby and his cronies.

There is a secret door and a magical ring that becomes the focus of love and hate, good and evil.

Will the very presence of our 20th century visitors change the course of history? Can Maggie be freed from the clutches of Martha and Sir Thomas? will good overcome the timeless evil we all have within? And, above all, can love itself defeat the turning of the seasons and the centuries?

Come with us.

To a magical place.....
a magical time.....

ONCE UPON A CASTLE
an adventure musical

ACT ONE

- Scene 1. The Square - the city square during a summer festival.
- Scene 2. The Dungeons - very dark, damp and gloomy, deep beneath the castle.
- Scene 3. The Banqueting Hall - a noisy and sumptuous medieval hall - bright, lively and busy.
- Scene 4. St. John's wood - a tangled and secret place near to the castle where the rebels hide and make their plans.
- Scene 5. The Dungeons.
- Scene 6. The Harbour - near the castle - a busy local seaport.

ACT TWO

- Scene 1. Sir Thomas's private apartments - very well furnished with silks and drapes.
- Scene 2. The Dungeon.
- Scene 3. The Banqueting Hall.
- Scene 4. The Dungeon.
- Scene 5. The Square - at Christmas.
