OLIVER!

EDINBURGH FRINGE FESTIVAL 15-29 AUGUST 1994

BOX OFFICE 031-650-2001

"Britain's finest youth company" The Scotsman

The National Youth Music Theatre welcomes you to its eighteenth Edinburgh season with something old and something new: an exuberant production of Lionel Bart's perennial family favourite, OLIVER! and a spectacular staging of the NYMT's newest music theatre commission, PENDRAGON, an Arthurian odyssey into the world of myth, magic and legend.

Pendragon

A fantastical new music drama by Peter Allwood, Joanna Horton, Jeremy James Taylor and Frank Whately.

A journey back in time to the Court of King Arthur Pendragon where Guinevere his queen, Merlin, Morgan Le Fay, the Lady of the Lake and the Knights of the Round Table battle with the forces of evil in this thrilling new exploration into the darker depths of Arthurian Legend.

Poetry, puppetry, magic and mime are interwoven with a hauntingly beautiful score to create a spectacular theatrical experience of human comedy, pathos and power.

"A marvellous production . . . pure magic" The Stage

"They perform with a degree of speed, professionalism and raw energy which is nothing short of sensational!" The Sunday Telegraph

OLIVER!

Two NYMT performers recreate the world of Fagin, Nancy, the Artful Dodger, Bill Sikes and Oliver himself in Charles Dickens' classic tale of youthful survival and triumph amid the hardship and oppression of Victorian London. Comedy and tragedy are never far apart in the succession of timeless songs - Food Glorious Food, Consider Yourself, Pick a Pocket or Two and As Long as He Needs Me.

One of Britain's best loved musicals, Lionel Bart's OLIVER! guarantees you a glorious two hours of rumbustious entertainment.

"Played as if their lives depended on it! Fresh as a breeze, sharp as a knife and weepy as a willow. A treat!"

John Tinker, Daily Mail

"Should the NYMT bring their OLIVER! to the Edinburgh Festival, don't miss it! - a most palpable hit."

The Scotsman

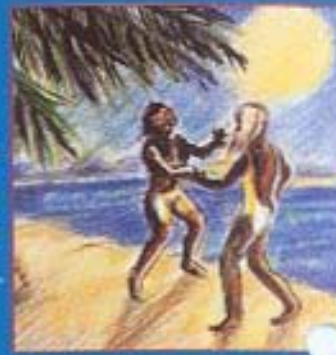

By arrangement with MusicScope and Stage Musicals Ltd of New York. Music, Lyrics and Book by Lionel Bart. Produced for the Broadway stage by David Merrick and Donald Albery.
