Action on Dementia

As the leading specialist dementia charity, Alzheimer Scotland - Action on Dementia (ASAD) works passionately to improve the lives of the 59,000 people with dementia in Scotland and their carers and families. The Edinburgh Branch of ASAD aims to provide and secure the provision of high quality services both for people with dementia and for their carers. These services include weekend Day Care which affords clients the opportunity to meet with others in a relaxed, informal setting while their carers can take a much required rest from caring, an Information and Counselling service which provides a valuable resource for carers, respite advice and support, a home respite scheme which allows others to go into clients' homes so that carers can go out to do the simplest of tasks (eg shopping) and organising suggested holidays for clients and their carers.

All this work requires dedication and commitment on behalf of the many volunteers and staff who work for the charity. However, more importantly, the branch is dependent on the generosity of the public in supporting this invaluable work. We do hope that you very much enjoy your evening with Tempo at 'The Sound of Music' 2002 and if you feel you would like to support ASAD, there will be a collection at the end of the evening. If you would like any further information or would like to get involved in the work of the Branch please contact us at:
